Dear Valued Customer,

Dear Business Partner,

Due to the continued volatility in fuel prices, we are continuing the weekly adjustment of our exceptional fuel surcharge mechanism, as previously communicated. This enables us to reflect market developments more accurately and transparently.

Last week, fuel prices increased by +5,84%. As fuel represents approximately 20% of our operational transport costs, the resulting impact on our pricing is calculated as follows:

5,84% x 20% = +1,17%

Therefore, an additional +1,17% fuel surcharge will be applied to transports executed during Week 29.

This weekly adjustment ensures that any future decreases in fuel prices will also be reflected more quickly, allowing the surcharge to adapt faster to market conditions.

We will continue to provide weekly updates and remain available should you have any questions.

Kind regards,

DANDOY team
